Ministry. Castaner, a government minister is therefore a first mea-culpa, once faced with the violence of "yellow vests", on this shocking day of urban violence in the place of the Star, and the rampage of the Arc de Triomphe , strong historical symbol of France and the Unknown Soldier, down some vandals, your even tries to extinguish its flame. Interior Minister Christophe Castaner admitted miscommunication on the political action of the executive. "We have objectively mismanaged a certain number of communication sequences, pedagogy on the issue of getting out of the oil business and this demand for national sovereignty, spending cuts, increased purchasing power", a- he said Saturday, December 1 on BFMTV.

Christophe Castaner alludes to the measures taken by the executive to ensure the energy transition: "These are the measures we have put in place and we have not been understood, for example on this communication to fight against oil dependency, we planted. "Do you want me to answer that everything is fine and that there is no problem? It would seem silly and especially lie to you," said the minister who had denounced a few minutes earlier, the violence committed in Paris and the "strategy of the professionals of the disorder".
